

FROM THE OFFICE OF STATE TREASURER BRIAN K. KROLICKI

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: May 4, 2005

CONTACT: Kathy Besser
(775) 684-5768

STATE TREASURER UNVEILS FIVE FINALISTS FOR NEVADA STATE QUARTER

(Carson City, Nevada) – State Treasurer Brian K. Krolicki unveiled the five final designs for consideration as Nevada’s State Quarter at the old Carson City Mint building today. The quarter will be Nevada’s entry in the U.S. Mint’s 50 State Quarter Program will be the 36th state quarter to be introduced to the country in January 2006.

Nevadans will be able to cast their votes in several ways: on the internet at NevadaTreasurer.gov, where they can submit the form online or print a form to mail to the State Treasurer’s office; at polling stations at the State Treasurer’s Capitol office, the State Treasurer’s office in Suite 4600 of the Sawyer Building in Las Vegas and at the Nevada State Museum in Carson City; and during a rural tour that will display the quarters across the state. Voting is open until May 30, 2005 at 5:00p.m.

“I am delighted that this program has been so well received by Nevadans, and I have no doubt that our citizens will be eager to vote for their favorite quarter,” said Treasurer Krolicki. “I also wish to express my gratitude to the advisory committee for their diligence and thoughtfulness in putting forth the themes and designs that best represent Nevada’s history.”

###